

Mickey Maloney was a spy. He went spying at night with his spy bag. He had a list of spying jobs to do.

Jobs for Mickey Maloney

- 1) Go to number 3 Cook Street and find out who is eating the cat's dinner.
- 2) Go to number 10 Green Street and find out who is eating the apples off the tree.
- 3) Go to number 8 Duck Street and find out who is making holes in the garden.

Mickey Maloney ran across Mrs Marrow's garden. He made big footprints with his spy shoes but it was dark and he didn't see.

He went to number 3 Cook Street. He looked over the fence and he saw a hedgehog eating the cat's dinner.

He went to number 10 Green Street and he saw snails eating the apples.

He went to number 8 Duck Street and he saw big worms making holes in the garden.

Mickey Maloney crossed off all the things on his list. Then he went home to sleep.

But Mrs Marrow was not asleep. She saw someone in a black hat and black glasses go into Mickey Maloney's house! Mrs Marrow called the police. A robber is going into Mickey Maloney's house!

The police came and knocked on Mickey Maloney's door. Is there a robber in your house? they said. No, said Mickey Maloney, there is just me.

The police saw Mickey Maloney's spy pyjamas. They saw a spy bag. You are a spy, they said. And they laughed.

The next day Mickey Maloney gave Mrs Marrow a card.
